CANDIDATURE FORM

Tell us about yourself

I am a partner at Law Firm Eversheds-Sutherland Vilnius office, whose practice is focused on corporate and commercial law, M&A and data protection. My responsibilities include business planning and development, client relationship, professional staff management and day-to-day legal consultancy.

I regularly deliver presentations at various business and legal events. I am a member of the Lithuanian Bar Association. The prestigious Legal 500 praised me for "commitment and professionalism".

Tell us about your company

Law Firm Eversheds Sutherland is an international business law firm, having offices in all continents and most of the European Union countries, including the Baltic States. We are known for our exceptional client service, professionalism and inclusion.

Why are you applying for the board of the French-Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce?

Having served on the Board for two years, I am well aware of the current status of affairs and priorities for the Chamber and French business community in Lithuania.

It was a great experience and opportunity to be part of the Board in the last period and I am happy to devote my time and efforts, going forward, if elected to the Board for this next term.

How will you be involved in the board of the French-Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce?

Board membership involves variety of activities, primarily focused on representation of the member's interests, as well as handling of administrative and organizational tasks that are necessary for ongoing functioning of the Chamber.

Would you be interested in leading a committee? If so, which one?

Being an expert in business law, it may well be considered to develop a group/committee on business law related matters.

What topics would you like to develop or get involved in at the French-Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce?

Representation of member's business interests is the main topic. This concerns government policy and legal matters, as well as business to business relations among members of the chamber and beyond.

Thank you for your application to the position of Board of Director of the French-Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce.
